	(Nai	ne of Legislative Body)		0	f the
County City of Village		ERTE		as foll	ows:
CECOR	'ANT 1	_

SECTION 1. Section three of Erie county local law number ten of nineteen hundred eighty-nine, constituting the Erie county code of ethics is hereby amended by amending renumbering subdivisions d, e, f, g, h, i, and j thereof as subdivisions e, f, g, h, i, j, and k, respectively.

- SECTION 2. Section three of Erie county local law number ten of nineteen hundred eighty-nine, constituting the Erie county code of ethics, is hereby amended by adding a new subdivision d thereto to read as follows:
- d. Except as otherwise provided in this code, the term "employee" shall mean any person who receives a salary or wage from the county of Erie, whether as an elected officer, officer or employee.

SECTION 3. Section three of Erie county local law number ten of nineteen hundred eighty-nine, constituting the Erie county code of ethics, is hereby amended by amending subdivision g thereof to read as follows:

(If additional space is needed, attach pages the same size as this sheet, and number each.)

For purposes of subdivision b of section eight of this local law, the term "officer or employee" shall mean the head or heads of any department, division, special district or other administrative unit of county government and their deputies and assistants; and such others who hold policy making positions as annually determined by the appointing authority and set forth in a written instrument which shall be filed with the Erie county board of ethics during the month of February. Said designation of those officers or employees as policy making may be challenged by the designated officers or employees upon filing a written petition in opposition to such designation within thirty days from the filing of such designation with the Erie county board of ethics. The aforementioned board of ethics shall upon receipt of a petition in opposition promptly make a determination as to the petition's merits upon a majority vote of a quorum of the board, and shall notify all interested parties within ten days of its decision.

SECTION 4. Section eight of Erie county local law number ten of nineteen hundred eighty-nine, constituting the Erie county code of ethics, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 8. Disclosure. a. Every employee of the county of Erie, other than those persons required to make annual financial disclosures under subdivision b of this section, shall file, within ten days of taking office, or within ten days of appointment to a position of employment with Erie county, and annually on the fifteenth day of May in every year, the following disclosure statement:
